

Master of Engineering Management (MEM)

The Ohio State University online Master of Engineering Management develops exceptional engineering managers who are ready to lead in any organization.

Earn the skills in business leadership, project management, finance, accounting, technology strategy, and innovation management needed to grow your career.

100% ONLINE

Courses are 100% online with no on-campus requirements and no weekly classes to attend for core engineering courses.

30-CREDIT PROGRAM

The program consists of 30 credit hours and features flexible asynchronous coursework with customizable course options.

2 YEARS TO COMPLETE

This program is designed with working professionals in mind. Most students take classes part-time and finish the program in 2 years or less.

CUSTOMIZABLE

The course curriculum is customizable which allows you to tailor your studies to align with your industry and career goals.

View the curriculum here.

CAPSTONE

This program culminates with a capstone course that integrates operational excellence, lean leadership strategies, and process improvement tactics.

TUITION

Whether you live in Ohio or anywhere else in the world, your tuition is the same low cost per credit hour.

Calculate your tuition here.

Education

You will learn from the same dedicated and expert faculty members that teach business, public affairs, and engineering on our main campus.

Growth

Engineering managers with a master's degree earn an average of $36,000 more per year compared to a bachelor's alone according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Excellence

Consistently top-ranked by U.S. News & World Report for Best Online Master's in Engineering Management, this program ensures you earn a well-respected degree.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

Ohio State Online
online.osu.edu/MEM